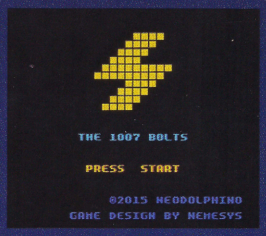
1007 Bolts

So you've pissed off the Gods... Now what?

Your options are limited. You can beg for mercy or try bargaining with the devil. Maybe standing around in a puddle of your own making is more your style. However, while you're mulling over your choices, you may want to watch your step because today, lightning will strike the same place more than once!



Shield your eyes

Scuttle Left

Scamper Right

Grovel

Perform a prayer to a greater diety.

Feel the warm trickle down your leg.

START Perform a miracle. (pause)

SELECT Accept your fate.

Your goal is to simply live until the next day. To avoid being smited, move left or right. Nothing else will work. You do happen to have the power to stop time with the Start button. Survive long enough and the gods will become even more furious!
